1 to John Mauldin?

2 A. I can't remember speaking to John
3 Mauldin. It's been -- if I have, it's been
4 probably around the time of the incident, maybe.

5 Q. Okay. Do you know, how many times have
6 you spoken to him?

7 A. I don't remember. Three, four, maybe.
8 Honestly, I don't have a clue.

9 Q. Do you have his phone number programmed
10 in your phone?

11 A. I do not believe so, no.

12 Q. Okay. Would you check for me?

13 A. Man, I just turned it off. Sure. It
14 will take a second to come on.

15 Q. That's fine. We'll move on for a
16 minute. Let me ask you if you agree with this
17 statement. Okay?

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. "The right of the people to be secure in 20 their persons, houses, papers and effects, against 21 unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be
22 violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon
23 probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation,
24 and particularly describing the place to be
25 searched, and the persons or things to be seized"?

1 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form. You
2 can answer.

3 A. What is the question?

4 Q. Do you agree with that statement?

5 A. No.

6 Q. What about that statement do you not
7 agree with?

8 A. If you commit a felony, I don't believe
9 you should be able to hide in your residence to be
10 free from prosecution or arrest or anything like
11 that.

12 Q. Okay. Do you disagree that people have 13 a basic fundamental right to be secure in their 14 homes?

15 A. Do I disagree?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you disagree that people have a
19 fundamental right to be secure in their persons?

20 A. No.

21 Q. And is there any waiver on that?

22 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form. You
23 can answer.

24 A. Like I said, I don't believe you should 25 be able to harbor yourself in your residence or

Christopher Nisbet - November 18, 2016

1 flee if you've committed felonies, no.

2 Q. Okay. You understand that there's a
3 warrant requirement for that, correct?

4 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form.

5 A. No, there's not, actually.

6 Q. Okay. So you don't believe that there
7 is a warrant requirement to arrest somebody for a
8 crime?

9 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form.

10 A. Absolutely not.

11 Q. Okay. Do you agree with me that the
12 Fourth Amendment applies to all people, regardless
13 of race, religion, gender or ethnicity?

14 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form.

15 A. The Fourth Amendment being?

16 Q. The right of -- do you know what the 17 Fourth Amendment is?

18 A. That's what I'm asking you.

19 Q. Okay. I would submit to you that the 20 Fourth Amendment is what I read to you. "The 21 right of the people to be secure in their persons,
22 houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable
23 searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and
24 no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause,
25 supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly

1 A. I believe that to be correct, yeah.

2 Q. And by the time you became coroner, you
3 had been, I guess, working at the coroner's office
4 for a period of time?

5 A. Yeah. Well, I had been with the
6 previous coroner for like five years. So I had 7 been to the basic coroner training at SLED and
8 other classes -- I think I went to homicide
9 investigation. I took some -- I took -- I got as 10 much education on it as possible because it was 11 just very interesting to me.

12 Q. Okay. And the coroner is a
13 constitutional officer in South Carolina; is that
14 correct?

15 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form.

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay.

18 (Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 7, Duties of
19 Dorchester County Coroner, was marked for 20 identification.)

21 Q. I'm going to hand you what we've marked
22 as Plaintiff's Exhibit 7. Is that your signature
23 at the bottom of that page?

24 A. Yes. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And on the top left of that page,

Page 72

1 A. In -- unless -- it's not dated, but
2 unless it was changed in the -- you know, the
3 previous budgets or whatever, I believe it would 4 still be.

5 Q. Do you recall changing that at all?

6 A. Alice handled all my budgetary stuff.
7 But I mean, something like that I would have
8 signed off on. So if you have a more current one
9 that I have a signature on, then that's possible.
10 But this also could have been one of my signature
11 stamps. I mean, my signature is a little bit
12 sloppier than that, but -- but I don't remember
13 changing it.

14 Q. Okay. And I'll submit to you that 15 that's the only one that's been provided to me by 16 Dorchester County.

17 A. Okay. All right.

18 Q. So I'm seeing if you have any specific 19 knowledge or specific memory that would have 20 changed that document?

21 A. Probably not. Probably not.

22 Q. And as the coroner, you were on duty 24
23 hours a day, seven days a week?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. And so once you were the coroner,

CAROLINA REPORTING

Christopher Nisbet - November 18, 2016

1 A. Because we're on call 24 hours a day,
2 seven days a week, you have to be able to go to
3 the grocery store at some point, and we're still
4 on call. So, many times, I've left groceries in a
5 buggy or had to walk out of a movie or whatever.
6 So I don't want not having your vehicle to be the
7 reason that your response time is extended,
8 because of the situation and circumstances we work
9 under.

10 Q. Okay. And that's essentially because
11 you and your employees are on duty all the time?

12 A. 24/7.

13 Q. All right. How often did you attend
14 training at the South Carolina Criminal Justice
15 Academy?

16 A. Training provided by them or at their 17 facility?

18 Q. Provided by them.

19 A. Oh, I can't recall. Over 25 years, I
20 mean, they've sponsored different training events
21 and stuff that the Coroners Association would put
22 on. But I mean --

23 Q. When you go to those trainings, do you
24 have to keep a log? Do you have to sign in?

25 A. Usually we would sign in in the morning

1 one of my other deputy coroners, Linda Walsh.

2 Q. And Linda Walsh, she was a former
3 Dorchester County Sheriff's officer?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And so she had weapons training
6 through -- at the sheriff's office --

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. -- that she brought to the coroner's
9 office?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And it's my understanding that one of 12 the qualifications to be a coroner can be that 13 you've been in the sheriff's office or you've been 14 in other law enforcement capacity; is that
15 correct?

16 A. The new qualifications, yes.

17 Q. Okay. So is there any written policy
18 about -- at the Dorchester County Coroner's
19 Office, about how much training the coroner or a
20 deputy coroner must have before they're issued a
21 firearm?

22 A. Just what the state law states, that
23 they have to go through a mandatory SLED-approved
24 course.

25 Q. Okay.

CAROLINA REPORTING

Christopher Nisbet - November 18, 2016

1 there any other additional requirement that you
2 imposed on your deputy employees to have training
3 with a firearm?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. Or firearm safety?

6 A. No.

7 Q. What is the protocol, policy or
8 procedure for when the coroner or a coroner's
9 deputy or a deputy coroner may use a firearm on a
10 private citizen?

11 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form.

12 A. What is the policy?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. There isn't one.

15 Q. Okay. Is there any difference in 16 protocol or policy for when the coroner or deputy 17 coroner may display a firearm versus shoot the 18 firearm?

19 A. It depends on the -- it depends on the 20 situation that they're in.

21 Q. What I'm asking you, is there any
22 written protocol for that?

23 A. No.

24 Q. And at the time of the incident giving
25 rise to this litigation, you did not currently

1 specifically tell me what training that you've had
2 by either South Carolina Law Enforcement Division
3 or the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy or 4 any other sanctioned entity in proper criminal
5 investigation.

6 A. I've had dozens of them throughout the
7 years that were put on by different training
8 agencies that were all approved by different law
9 enforcement agencies; like we don't just go to the 10 death because -- in the South Carolina law books
11 also, it says that a coroner can detain somebody
12 without a warrant and hold them indefinitely if 13 they think that they've committed a felony. But 14 it doesn't --

15 Q. What law is that?

16 A. It's in the law book. I don't know a
17 specific law off the top of my head, but that's 18 how come --

19 Q. How did -- when were you trained on
20 that?

21 A. It's in the law book. I have a set of 22 law books. I used to read them.

23 Q. Okay. If I send a request for 24 production to your attorney for the law book that 25 you're citing to, would you be able to provide

1 that to him?

2 A. I don't think I've ever told him.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. I can find it for you.

5 Q. Well, I mean, is it a secret?

6 A. No. But I don't know the number. Do
7 you know every code that's in the law book?

8 Q. No.

9 A. No, of course, you don't. Right. But I
10 remember reading it, and that's what I used -- the 11 sheriff's department would say, You go on in 12 there, because we have to have a warrant and you
13 don't. And I know that.

14 Q. Okay. So is it your understanding that 15 you can search and seize individuals, as the 16 coroner, without a warrant?

17 A. If it's pertaining to a death.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Were you ever trained by South Carolina
21 Law Enforcement Division or the South Carolina
22 Criminal Justice Academy on the policies,
23 procedures and protocol for the correct steps to 24 take when suspected criminal activity is 25 witnessed?

1 A. He's the one who told me what Leroy
2 said. I just saw Leroy with a gun in his hand.

3 Q. Right. You made no effort to verify
4 what John Mauldin told you?

5 MR. KOZACKI: Object to the form.

6 A. I made no effort to verify what John
7 Mauldin told me?

8 Q. Yes.

9 A. John Mauldin is the one that told me.

10 Q. Right. You made no effort to verify
11 what he told you that Leroy Fulton said?

12 A. No. Because I saw Mr. Fulton with a gun
13 in his face, and that's enough. Because I
14 witnessed a felony. That's a felony.

15 Q. You believe that's a felony?

16 A. It is a felony.

17 Q. But you would agree with me that you
18 have no law enforcement training?

19 A. I am law enforcement. I have law
20 enforcement retirement. I drive a law enforcement
21 vehicle with blue lights. They give us guns. I
22 mean, I fall under the law enforcement category,
23 yes, I do -- or did. Sorry. Not any longer.

24 Q. Okay. On that night, though, you made
25 no effort to speak with Mr. Fulton, did you?

1 A. I had a volunteer that I think we had to
2 fire for incompetency.

3 Q. And who was that?

4 A. The one that just recently ran for
5 coroner in Dorchester County and got beat.

6 Q. What is his name?

7 A. Randy Brown. My chief black -- my black
8 chief deputy -- I had two chief deputies at the 9 time. My black chief deputy is Perida Moultrie.
10 The other one is Alice Durr. She actually is the 11 one that came to me and said, We've got to fire
12 that dude. And so -- but I don't think it was --
13 I don't think that was 2015. I think that was --
14 I think it might have been the year before that.
15 But Joe Woods was a fireman; he was a volunteer in 16 my office for a long time.

17 Q. How many times have you conducted
18 traffic stops using your Dorchester County
19 Coroner's Office vehicle?

20 A. A couple.

21 Q. How many other people besides Leroy
22 Fulton have you stopped?

23 MR. KOZACKI: Object.

24 A. I didn't stop Leroy Fulton. He pulled
25 over, and I pulled next to him.

1 Q. Besides that incident, how many other
2 times have you stopped people in your county
3 vehicle?

4 A. That's the same question you just asked
5 me, and I said a couple.

6 Q. Okay. Let me ask you this: How often
7 do you use the N-word?

8 A. Not very often.

9 Q. What does that word mean to you?

10 A. Another word for a thug.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. It's all on the radio.

13 Q. Would you use -- would you use the
14 N-word to address people that you respect?

15 A. Absolutely. They call me that too. I
16 have one of my very best friends that's black, and 17 he calls me the N-word all the time.

18 Q. How many times, before you called Doug
19 Wright and called Leroy Fulton the N-word, have 20 you used the N-word?

21 A. That night?

22 Q. No.

23 A. The same -- probably the same amount of 24 times as you have. I don't remember. I mean, I
25 don't remember. So you're saying that you've

1 calls a black man the N-word, is that okay?

2 A. I have -- one of my very best friends
3 are black, and I call him it all the time because
4 we joke around. Do you know what "peckerwood"
5 means? It's the same thing, but a white man.

6 Q. So you don't believe that a white man
7 addressing an African-American man as a "nigger"
8 is hate speech?

9 A. You've got to put more into that -- you
10 just can't ask an open question like that.
11 Because if it's between me and my best friend, no.

12 Q. In the context that you used it on
13 August 25th of 2015, you would agree --

14 A. I used it in the term of a gangster-type
15 thug, yes, I did.

16 Q. And the way that you used it --

17 A. Yes. His lifestyle, he is a thug, and I
18 called him that that night to Doug on a private
19 phone conversation that was illegally recorded,
20 correct.

21 Q. Would you agree with me that there
22 should be no tolerance for elected officials to 23 use the N-word?

24 A. That's -- I mean, that's a personal
25 preference. You can't tell an elected official

Christopher Nisbet - November 18, 2016

Page 208

1 what to do. That's the great thing about South
2 Carolina, right?

3 Q. Is that --

4 A. Hillary Clinton said it, but she was
5 still up for election here recently. And she's a
6 Democrat, so, I mean, what does that tell you?

7 Q. So it's your opinion that an elected
8 official can do whatever they want?

9 A. No. I said they can have the freedom to 10 think whatever they want and say what they want,
11 with the only person that can be affected by their 12 actions or statements are me or that person or 13 whoever the elected person is.

14 Q. What I'm asking you is, would you agree
15 with me that there is no tolerance for an elected
16 official to call another person the N-word?

17 A. Is there no tolerance? That's not --
18 that sentence doesn't even make sense. Put it in 19 layman's terms. Do I believe it's okay for an
20 elected official to use the N-word?

21 Q. Yes.

22 A. Well, it depends on who they're talking
23 to and where they're at.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. You mean to tell me that I can't call my

Christopher Nisbet - November 18, 2016

1 friend of 29 years that?

2 Q. In the context that you used it on
3 August 25th --

4 A. Correct. Okay.

5 Q. -- it's unacceptable?

6 A. No. Because it was on a private phone
7 conversation that I've had ten times prior to 8 that, with a known thug across the street.

9 Q. Okay. Would you agree with me that by 10 referring to Mr. Fulton as the N-word, that you
11 were in violation of the Dorchester County policy
12 on -- that we read at the beginning of this 13 deposition?

14 A. Elected officials don't have to follow
15 that. But, also, it was a private phone
16 conversation. You know what? It's just like you
17 farting in a restaurant. That's not acceptable,
18 and there's probably policies out there, but
19 people do it. But I was on a private phone
20 conversation with the captain of the Summerville
21 Police Department, that was illegally recorded and
22 used to my detriment, and it was for nobody else
23 to hear. It was two guys that have known each
24 other for 30 years, and I've called him ten times
25 in the past year about this thug living across the

1 I would have went back inside and finished my beer
2 and smoked my cigar. Nobody is perfect. So, no,
3 I didn't do everything perfect, but I would do it
4 again.

5 Q. In your text messages, you also say,
6 This is going to do nothing but give me press time
7 for reelection. Do you intend to run for coroner
8 again?

9 A. I was going to until that was part of 10 the plea bargain.

11 Q. Okay. And is it your understanding that
12 the press that you were getting from your actions
13 that night were going to bolster your ability to 14 get reelected?

15 A. You know what? You're probably the only
16 person I've ever met that is not sick of thugs in 17 their life and in their communities, killing
18 people, killing innocent people and all that 19 stuff. You're like the only person I've met that 20 is not sick of that. So, yes, I am sick of that.
21 And you know what? Yes, and I put my foot down.
22 I lost everything: My job, my career, everything.
23 But you know what? I would do it again, because I
24 believe in what I believe in.

25 Q. And that's thugs will be thugs?

1 A. No. He --

2 Q. He was your friend?

3 A. No. Whenever we needed him, he would do
4 it, and I would pay him, just like my chaplain. I
5 pay him on a per call basis, because I didn't have
6 a budget line item just for that.

7 Q. All right. Let me ask you this: You
8 texted Alice that, "Leroy Fulton was shot and 9 wounded in West Ashley this morning during some
10 type of disturbance at 4 a.m. in his backyard, no
11 suspects. Karma is a bitch." Do you remember
12 that?

13 A. Absolutely.

14 Q. Okay. And later she asks, Was that good
15 for you? Do you remember that?

16 A. And I probably said, If he had died,
17 yeah.

18 Q. You said "Indeed"?

19 A. Yeah. I probably meant if he had died,
20 but --

21 Q. How is Leroy Fulton or another human
22 being shot good for you?

23 A. Because he's a thug. And being out at 24 four o'clock in the morning on a Tuesday, getting 25 shot three times, once in the stomach, twice in

1 the back -- just because you confronted somebody,
2 they capped you in the stomach, you turn around
3 and ran, and they shot you twice in the back.

4 Q. Do you have any personal or specific
5 knowledge about that incident?

6 A. I've got all kinds of knowledge about
7 all kinds of stuff.

8 Q. You also told Alice Durr that Leroy
9 Fulton got evicted by the church that owns his 10 house?

11 A. Karma. It's horrible.

12 Q. And how -- what specific knowledge do
13 you have that he was evicted?

14 A. Because I'm the caretaker of the church
15 across the street from my house because it's one
16 of the oldest churches in Dorchester County, and
17 I'm a master craftsman so I do stuff for them. I
18 even pay their light bill once in a while, and I
19 look out for them.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. And the preacher, who happens to be
22 black, is actually a good friend of mine.

23 Q. And so how did you find out that Mr.
24 Fulton was evicted, or how did you come to that 25 belief?

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. KOZACKI: I'm going to instruct you
3 not to divulge any conversations you may have
4 had with either myself or your other lawyers.

5 THE WITNESS: Okay. Sorry.

6 BY MR. COOPER:

7 Q. Mr. Nisbet, let me ask you this: Do you
8 understand that this lawsuit is against you?

9 A. No. Because it's not very clear,
10 actually.

11 Q. Well, do you understand that if there is 12 no insurance or that if there is not enough
13 insurance coverage, that you could be held
14 personally responsible?

15 A. Yeah. I can understand that. But you
16 can't get blood from a turnip. So get whatever
17 you call it, a judgment. Oh, well. I mean, what
18 -- I don't have any money. I lost everything, Mr.
19 Cooper. That's what you don't seem to understand.

20 Q. Well, do you understand that a judgment
21 could affect the property that you do own and your
22 ability to own property in the future?

23 A. I could (sic) care less. I really
24 could. As long as I've got my kids, my health and 25 my little job, I'm good.
